

Dixon Hughes Goodman understands the highly competitive and demanding concerns of our clients and helps make strategic decisions to maximize the financial goals of their businesses. With nearly 80 years of experience, we combine responsive, personal service with the strength of a top 15 U.S. accounting firm. Our objective is to customize your tax approach and results to meet your business needs.

Committed To Your Success

Dixon Hughes Goodman's Tax Credit Advisory Group is committed to providing clients with a team of audit and tax professionals dedicated to serving as successful tax credit advisors. We have vast experience in the low-income housing, historic and new markets arenas, and also the newly emerging renewable energy tax credit market. We pride ourselves on knowing the industry, how to navigate complex transactions that are often needed to get a project completed, and networking with other professionals to make sure we stay abreast of hot topics and industry trends.

Whether your company is considering investing in an existing project or new construction, analyzing projected investor returns, complying with state housing requirements, or struggling with exit strategies, our Tax Credit Advisory Group is available to you every step of the way.

Because we have a proven track record in serving the industry, we can help you achieve operational efficiency and take advantage of profit-maximizing opportunities.
