

Dixon Hughes Goodman has a tradition of excellence and a reputation for providing value-added services to governmental entities at the federal, state and local level. Today's governmental bodies require sound financial advice to manage revenues, allocate resources and develop ways to deliver services in the most efficient manner. Even the most sophisticated elected officials and appointed managers can benefit from the experiences of their accountants to carry out these responsibilities.

The Benefits of Personal Attention & Open Communication

Our team's professional approach and our in-depth knowledge and assistance in the areas of finance, accounting, auditing, payroll, budgeting and other specialized areas, has enabled us to establish mutually rewarding relationships with our clients. Ongoing communication throughout the year provides the opportunity to anticipate your needs and to be responsive in a timely and efficient manner. It is the foundation of our practice.

State and Local Government/Authorities, Boards and Commissions

- Financial and compliance audits
- Budgeting
- Cash flow projection
- Rate analysis
- Financing plans
- GFOA certification

HUD/VHDA Services

- Audits
- Compliance
- Internal control testing

Not-for-Profits (A-133)

- Single audits

Federal Procurement Offerings

Pre-Award Surveys

- Accounting systems
- Financial capability

Proposals

- Agreed-upon procedures
- Source selection assistance
- Equitable adjustments, delay, or terminations for convenience proposals

Post Award

- Incurred cost audits
- Defective pricing

Other

- Cost accounting standards