

The Dixon Hughes Goodman Senior Housing and Care Practice extends well beyond traditional accounting and advisory services. With over 40 professionals and more than 200 years of collective experience in the industry, we understand the many challenges and opportunities your organization faces in today's environment, and we are well prepared to address your needs.

Serving the Entire Senior Housing and Care Continuum

We offer insight and guidance at both the strategic and operational levels to help our clients build market share, improve organizational efficiencies, manage declining reimbursement rates and comply with regulatory changes.

Our Clients Include:

- + Continuing Care Retirement Communities
- + Independent Living Communities
- + Assisted Living Facilities
- + Skilled Nursing/Long-Term Care Facilities
- + Home/Community-Based Services Providers

An Experienced Team Structured for Your Needs

We have taken great care in assembling a team of professionals who possess senior housing and care experience in a broad range of financial, development, operational and research disciplines.

A recognized leader in the industry, we remain current in the areas of consumer behavior, the economic climate, pending government legislation and industry announcements as well as business and financial trends. Our team strives to identify and address innovations that will have an impact on your business.
